Petitioning the Court

To modify the conditions of supervision as follows:

The offender shall be allowed to travel to Mexico at the direction of the probation officer.

Cause

The offender is being supervised in the Southern District of California. Since the offender has been stable, she has been transferred to the compliant caseload. The offender has scheduled trans-gender surgery in Mexico. Due to the proximity of the Mexican border to the Southern District of California, the Southern District U.S. Probation Office frequently authorizes travel across the border. Ms. Jones will frequently travel between the U.S. and Mexico for medical reasons. In order to avoid approaching the Court each time for travel permission, it is felt that giving the probation officer the authority to grant travel will be most effective.
